

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NO. 21-CR-10256-RWZ

v.

SPINE FRONTIER, INC.,
ADITYA HUMAN, and KINGSLEY R. CHIN,

Defendants.

ORDER ON EXCLUDABLE DELAY

KELLEY, U.S.M.J.

Defendants had a final status conference scheduled for March 2, 2023. They filed a joint status report and asked to continue the conference to another date no earlier than May 12, 2023, because one attorney has a scheduling conflict on March 2 and there are recently-filed discovery requests outstanding. (#97.) The case is continued to May 16, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. for a further final status conference.

With the assent of the parties, the Court finds that the interests of justice in this case, i.e., to allow defendants time to prepare the case for trial or other disposition, outweigh the best interests of the public and defendants for a trial within seventy days of the date of indictment. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the Clerk of this Court enter excludable time for the period from March 2, 2023, up to and including May 16, 2023.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The parties are hereby advised that under the provisions of Rule 2(b) of the Rules for United States Magistrates in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, any party may move for

The party seeking reconsideration shall file with the Clerk of this Court, and serve upon all parties, a written notice of the motion which shall specifically designate the order or part thereof to be reconsidered and the basis for the objection thereto. The district judge, upon timely motion, shall reconsider the magistrate judge's order and set aside any portion thereof found to be clearly erroneous in fact or contrary to law. The parties are further advised that the United States Court of Appeals for this Circuit has indicated that failure to comply with this rule shall preclude further appellate review. See Phinney v.
